COMPUTER EDUCATION
UNIT

Teaching Notes

for

Where in the World

is Carmen Sandiego

CC
371.334
TEA

CEU 039

Department of Education

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This document combines the ideas of several people including:

Kay Placing (Metropolitan South West Region)
Paul Brown (South Coast Region)
Tina Harrison (Computer Education Unit).

Edited by Tina Harrison.

Thanks must also go to Imagineering for allowing the use of the graphics from "Where in the World is Carmen Sandiego" to illustrate this document.

COPYRIGHT DETAILS

The software referred to in this publication is fully covered by the Copyright Law. Unauthorised copying is not permitted. All teachers and educators should respect the copyright laws to ensure the continued development of quality software in the future.

Teachers and educators may reproduce any part of this document for classroom or private use provided the source is achnowledged, but the document may not be reproduced inpart or in full for monetary gain.

This document has been produced with the authority of the Director, Services. Any comments or suggestions on the material in this publication should be addressed to:

Chief Education Officer
Computer Education Unit
NSW Department of Education
P.O. Box 16
ERSKINEVILLE NSW 2043
AUSTRALIA